SALT LAKE CITY

evening brought out an unusually large gathering of the first nighters and society was well represented.

Mrs. A. Robert Elmore of Los Angeles is visiting with her sister, Mrs. Charles W. Lawrence.

The first party of the season given by the Utah club at the Hotel Utah Monday evening proved a great success. Cards were arranged on the balcony for those who did not care to dance, and a buffet supper was served in the banquet room during the evening. Governor and Mrs. Wm. Spry, Colonel and Mrs. J. J. Daynes, Colonel and Mrs. Edward W. Jenkins, Mr. and Mrs. Wellington E. Lake, Mr. and Mrs. Dale H. Park, Dr. and Mrs. L. W. Snow, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Wallace, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Whitney and Mrs. John C. Cutler received the guests.

Mrs. W. Edward Fife entertained at a beautiful luncheon at the Hotel Utah Monday in compliment to her sister, Mrs. J. E. Cosgriff. The table was decorated with pink Chetney and Killarney roses and ferns.

Mr. and Mrs. David Keith are in San Francisco, where they will spend a week or two, returning by way of Los Angeles.

The ladies in charge of the "Doll Show" to be given on December fifth at the Hotel Utah are working hard to make the affair the success it deserves to be. The proceeds of the sale will go to the benefit of the Free Kindergarten association and Mrs. W. H. Cunningham, Mrs. W. W. Armstrong and Miss Webber are superintending the arrangements.

HAPPENINGS AND WHEREABOUTS.

Mr. D. Moore Lindsay returned during the week from England, where he has spent the past several months. Mrs. Lindsay will not return until after the holidays.

Mrs. O. W. Powers arrived home early in the week, having accompanied her son, Roger W. Powers, part of the way to Ann Arbor, where Mr. Powers has again taken up his law studies in the University of Michigan.

Mrs. Milton E. Lipman is in Detroit, where she was called by the illness of her father.

Mrs. Edwin F. Holmes has discontinued her Fridays at home until the afternoon of November 17th.

Mrs. J. F. Evans of San Francisco is visiting here with Mrs. J. M. Bowman. Later she will be the guest of Mrs. Frank B. Stephens.

Mrs. M. J. Cheesman and her son, Morton, are at home for the winter at the Hotel Utah. Mr. and Mrs. R. N. Campbell and their children, are at home at No. 11 Prescott apartments.

Mrs. A. W. McCune and Miss Elizabeth McCune have gone to New York for the winter. Mr. McCune, who is now in Peru, will join them in February.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley G. Price are now at home at 556 South Eleventh East street.

After a long leave of absence, Captain John C. Waterman is here from the coast to rejoin his regiment. He will accompany the troops to San Francisco, where he will be joined by Mrs. Waterman before sailing for the Philippines.

Dr. and Mrs. Edward Chamberlain have returned from their wedding trip and are at home to their friends in the Ivanhoe apartments.

Miss Holland, who, with her mother, has been visiting Dr. and Mrs. J. G. Holland at Fort Douglas, has gone to San Francisco to visit with friends.

Those who have viewed our newest gowns, hats, dresses and suits say the mid-season styles are smarter than anything we have yet shown.

Our facilities for keeping in constant touch with Fashion's trend in New York and Paris makes possible our early advance showing.
